PROGRAM INDEX

CBS2 NEWS AIRS MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY, 5-7AM, 5, 6, AND 10:00 PM. ON SATURDAY, CBS 2 BROADCASTS NEWS AT 8 AM AND 5:30 PM AND 10 PM. SUNDAY BROADCASTS ARE AT 6 AM AND 10 AM AND 5 PM AND 10 PM. THE DURATION OF STORIES IN THIS REPORT THAT AIR RANGE FROM ONE TO THREE MINUTES

FAMILY:

January 5, 2006 (CBS2 News at 5 p.m.): "Baby Zoe", abandoned at birth, today is a beautiful baby girl living in a loving home that is permanent. The child was "fast-tracked" for adoption, thanks to an Illinois law that allows birth mothers to leave their newborns at so-called safe havens, such as police stations and hospitals.

January 9, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): In the original version of the children's classic "Goodnight Moon," there is a picture of the book's illustrator, Clement Hurd, smoking. In the latest editions, publishers have now digitally removed the cigarette. What gives? Is this political correctness out of control? Or does showing a smoking illustrator set a bad example for children?

January 19, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): NBA player Antonio Davis heads into the stands—a violation of NBA policy--to confront a fan who was harassing his wife. Players and most fans come to his defense, saying defending one's family is more important than the game itself.

February 16, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Most people check into a hotel when they're on the road, but not the governor of Indiana. CBS 2 Northwest Indiana Bureau Chief Pamela Jones shows us the farmhouse of an Indiana family who is leaving the light on at night for Mitch Daniels.

March 3, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): A top executive with AT&T decides to help some Girl Scouts improve their cookie sales, offering tips on the best sales pitches. In the end, she actually learns some valuable business lessons from the girls, too.

WOMEN:

January 9, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): First Lady Patti Blagojevich announces a new lottery game. Proceeds from sales go to research a breast cancer cure.

January 16, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): It's the Super Bowl for fashionistas! Which starlets looked hot and who did not on the red carpet at the Golden Globes. We talk with the experts about who had the best dress.

February 8, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): An alarming number of women in Chicago have high levels of mercury in their system. Mercury can result in pregnancy complications and problems for babies and children, including birth defects and learning disabilities. The culprit? High levels of mercury found in fish in women's diets.

March 9, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): It's a phone system that DuPage County Sheriff's department officials say is unlike any other in the state. It is a service that informs victims of domestic violence when a protective order has been served against her alleged abuser.

GOVERNMENT:

January 4, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Longtime state lawmaker Emil Jones is recovering from angioplasty. A week later he was back in public, saying the procedure was nothing compared with the rigors of the State Senate.

January 18, 2006 (CBS2 News at 6 p.m.): Governor Rod Blagojevich lays out his vision for the state and touts a huge road construction plan that he says would create thousands of jobs. He also proposes a $1,000 tax credit for parents of students who attend state schools. Reaction to his plan is split along party lines.

February 13 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): Former City Clerk James Laski pleads not guilty to bribery and fraud charges. Laski, who resigned under fire earlier in the month, is expected to work out a plea deal with the feds who continue to investigate corruption in City Hall.

March 9, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): Governor Blagojevich blasts the media for unfairly portraying him as out of touch for failing to respond to a political flap involving his hate crimes commission. Several Jewish members of the commission quit in protest because another member is affiliated with Louis Farrakhan. The leader of the Nation of Islam has angered Jews in the past over anti-Semitic statements.

March 21, 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): Team coverage of Illinois primaries.

HEALTH:

January 4, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.) A recent study shows that cheerleading injuries have doubled over the past decade. Experts say that cheerleading has evolved into a more gymnastic-type sport.. rather than cheering. The more involved routines are probably resulting in the injuries....

January 7, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 8 a.m.): A new report in a popular men's magazine gives our fair city a rather dubious distinction: The windy city is the fattest city in the nation, according to men's fitness magazine. The magazine cited, among other things, the cold weather, bad traffic and our low ratio of golf courses to residents.

January 10, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): The battle against bird flu has shifted to Chicago. The goal for experts at Lincoln Park Zoo is to detect bird flu before it infects people.

January 18, 2006 (CBS2 News at 5 p.m.): Former Lt. Gov. Corinne Wood talks about the recurrence of breast cancer—which is rare considering she had been cancer-free for eight years.

February 13, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Doctors are treating girls, and even boys, as young as six years old for eating disorders.

March 7, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Dana Reeve dies of lung cancer, despite the fact that she never smoked.

DIVERSITY:

January 16, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.) 40 years ago, Dr Martin Luther King Junior came to Chicago to protest the inequality and injustice of housing for African-Americans. He was greeted with rocks and racial slurs. For the first time, his photos are on public display.

January 31, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.) Coretta Scott King, the wife of slain civil rights leader Martin Luther King passed away after suffering a massive stroke and heart attack last summer. Chicagoans who knew King share stories of her remarkable life.

February 3, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): A new movie about interracial dating is creating a big buzz. Why? Because it deals with a black woman dating a white man. In African American circles, it is much more unusual for black women to date outside their race. We talk with people about the message the movie sends.

February 17, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Over the past few years, several small art galleries have popped up in the re-emerging Bronzeville neighborhood on the South Side. Now, those art gallery owners are getting together with the hope to make Bronzeville a destination stop for art lovers. In the 40's, many of the WPA artists worked in Bronzeville and created a thriving black arts community.

March 10, 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): An estimated 500,000 people march downtown to protest a bill that would make it difficult for illegal immigrants to work in the United States.

CONSUMER:

January 17, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Everybody gets junk mail, and nobody seems to want it. A move is gaining popularity to ban junk mail. It works like the do not call list: for telemarketers.

February 2, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Putting a face on identity theft. Caught on tape: A woman in Ohio is seen attempting to buy computers after stealing the identity of a suburban Chicago woman. Also, we look at what you can do to protect yourself.

February 8, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Opening day at the Chicago Auto Show: A look at some hot rides and some of the best values out there.

March 7, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Do you hate asking for directions? If you have a cell phone, you may never have to do that again. Now there's on a portable talking map that fits in your pocket.

CRIME/PUBLIC SAFETY:

January 6, 2006 (CBS2 News at 6 p.m.) A Gary man who was shot in the face and left for dead tells how he survived the ordeal and that he now fears relatives of the suspects in the case are out to get him.

January 16, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): Reputed mob boss Joey "The Clown" Lombardo appears in court after being captured by FBI agents. Lombardo was on the run after he was indicted for his alleged role in at least 18 mob-related killings. The Clown lives up to his nickname, joking with the judge and court-watchers during his initial hearing in which he pleaded not-guilty.

February 2, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 pm.): Another shocking allegation of child abuse at the hands of a Chicago priest. Cardinal George vows to be more aggressive in stopping abuse and removing priests from ministry.

February 13, 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): A prison break from Cook County jail is apparently facilitated by a jail guard who was trying to embarrass the county sheriff. All the inmates were capture and nobody was hurt, but it was the third jail escape in six months.

February 27, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): An undercover investigation reveals that the bomb-sniffing dogs at Chicago's main train station are not trained to detect explosives carried by people.

March 13, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): After two young girls are killed by gunfire in less than two weeks, residents of the crime-ridden Englewood neighborhood pleaded for more help to make their streets safer.

July 31, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Sources tell CBS2 that Rep. Jesse Jackson Jr. will not launch a challenge to unseat Mayor Daley in 2007. However, Jackson is leaving the door open to a mayoral campaign if Daley decides against running for another term.

August 5, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): A federal appeals court clears the way for expansion at O'Hare. Suburban opponents, who fear increased noise from the extra flights, tried to block the project.

August 29, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Sources tell CBS 2 News that Cook County Clerk Dorothy Brown plans to launch a campaign for mayor.

August 30, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): After months of speculation about whether he would seek a record sixth term, Mayor Daley names a trusted aide to head Daley's re-election campaign.

September 6, 2006 (CBS 2 News 5, 6, and 10 p.m.): Former governor George Ryan is sentenced to 61/2 years in federal prison. Ryan was sentenced for his role in wide-ranging corruption while he was governor and secretary of state.

September 12, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5, 6, 10 p.m.): For the first time in his 17 years in office, Mayor Daley issues a veto as he rejects the so-called big-box ordinance. The law would have forced large retailers to pay its workers a minimum of $10 an hour.

September 17, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): He claims he has no presidential aspirations in 2008, but Sen. Barack Obama sure sounded like a candidate at the annual steak fry in Iowa. That event has historically attracted presidential hopefuls testing the waters.

HEALTH: Cardinal George's cancer; Snore ... no more; Cookies and cholesterol; Allergy alert

July 27 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): Cardinal Francis George undergoes surgery for bladder cancer. George opts for more radical treatment, removal of the entire bladder.

August 3, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 10 p.m.): Could slipping a ring on your finger be a solution for people who snore? Medical editor Mary Ann Childers signed up some long-time snorers to test the claim.

August 11, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Lowering your cholesterol can mean sacrificing foods you love. But now there is a tasty way to do it. Would you believe chocolate chip cookies?

August 25, 2005 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): Between the ragweed and the mold, this fall's allergy season is shaping up to be a bad one. There are many over-the-counter medications that can help you feel better. But be careful, they may also steer you into trouble on the road.

DIVERSITY: Using the N-Word; Immigrant's struggle; Bud Billiken; Obama in Africa; First woman heads Muslim group

July 28, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): In an interview with CBS2 Political Editor Mike Flannery, prominent black leader the Rev. James Meeks said, "The "N" word is not in the African-American community a bad word. It's a term of endearment. And I don't see it as derogatory or defensive, offensive." Meeks later says he will no longer use the word.

August 9, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 p.m.): Herminia Silva was fatally poisoned by a cactus plant while crossing the Arizona desert by foot after entering the country illegally with her ten-year-old daughter. During that time, a small infection caused by a thorn became full-blown gangrene. Her husband Feliciano says she only wanted to give their children a better life. That was her dream.

August 11, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 6 and 10 p.m.): The Bud Billiken Parade is one the biggest events in Chicago every year, especially among African Americans.

August 26, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 and 10 p.m.): Sen. Barack Obama returns to Kenya, the homeland of his father. Obama is greeting by thousands of Kenyans, who treat the freshman Senator like a conquering hero. However, Obama later angers the government when he tells a crowd to stand up to political corruption.

August 30, 2006 (CBS 2 News at 5 p.m.): For the first time ever, a woman is the face of Islam. This week, Dr. Ingrid Mattson was chosen to lead North America's largest Muslim group. She talks about the role that puts her in the history books.

CRIME AND PUBLIC SAFETY: Subway fire; heat wave; bomb detection equipment; Midway scare; Chicago evacuation plan

July 11 2006 (CBS 2 News all shows): A CTA subway train catches fire, forcing hundreds of riders to make their way through dark tunnels filled with smoke. Over 100 people are treated for injuries. The Chicago Fire Department is praised for a quick response and rescue.
